

Orlando Science Center Visitor Experience Internship

Department: Visitor Experience

Reports to: Full Time Science Interpreter

Time Commitment: 1-2 semesters

Hours: 8-12 hours per week

Summary of Position: The Orlando Science Center's Public Programming department is offering an internship to develop skills to teach and present science demonstrations and activities with guests and to assist with the development of new content for the department.

Based on the internship candidate's experience and education, the Orlando Science Center has opportunities in the following areas: biology, chemistry, paleontology, astronomy, physical science, health science, and early childhood. The specific content area will be discussed prior to the start of the internship.

Qualifications:

- Must have completed at least 30 college credits (college sophomore)
- · Seeking a degree in science or education field
- Experience working with children is preferred
- Any experience working with medical simulators, telescopes, Scanning Electron
   Microscopes, theater equipment, animals or in a laboratory setting is preferred

Requirements:

- Weekend availability
- Strong communication skills (both written and oral)
- Comfortable speaking in front of large groups
- Strong working knowledge of science content in the following fields: biology, chemistry, paleontology, physics, astronomy, and ecology
- Individuals should be organized, and be able to work with minimal supervision and guidance